George Washington University

SUPPORT

Because the Hatchet has been hidden away this past semester under piles of Army over coats and Navy blouses in the famous little office where former editors wore their fingers thin on stiff typewriter keys, some people seem to think that the office has become dusty, the editors crusty, and the Hatchet rusty, and that there is no good in them.

All this may be true. But we ask you, where does the success of a school paper lie? You cannot dodge the question. At first you may answer rather feebly, "In the interest and support of the student body. I suppose, but we're all so busy."

You may rest assured that you will be interrupted at this point. The next best thing to doing a thing yourself, the editors will tell you is to ask a busy man to do it for you.

The editors are willing to do all they can for the success of the paper.
They congratulate themselves that they have so many busy people to help them.

Do you know the best kind of polish for a rusty Hatchet? Student and faculty support. Are you going to give it to us?

WE APOLOGIZE

Because of a necessary change in the printing of the Hatchet which occurred at the last minute, the promised February 22 issue did not come out. The staff wishes to apologize and hopes that no more difficulties will prevent the weekly issuing at the proper time during this semester.
We refuse to make any promises, however, but it is time for the luck to turn and we hope for the best.

At the Baccalaureate Service some one suggested that the Hog of the University needed mending. This is a good opportunity for the W. U. C.
What has become of the Enosinia Society? We hope to see a revival soon as the Enosinian is one of the oldest and best known of the University activities.

As the mouthpiece of the student body, the Hatchet, wishes to express to Mr. Abram Lisner a very deep appreciation of his gift to the University of $2,500 to be used in paying off the mortgage of three of the school buildings. Mr. Lisner's interest and generosity, which springs from his public spirit and interest in the University, merits the heartiest thanks of the student body.

AN OPEN FORUM.

The Hatchet editors are anxious to make the Hatchet truly representative of the interests of the student body and of the faculty. To this end we shall be glad to print letters from students and members of the faculty in an Open Forum, which we hope will help to express the sentiment of the University on all matters of University interest.

The editors will not take the responsibility for the opinion expressed in such letters and will print letters whether they agree with the sentiment expressed or not. We do not promise to print all letters, however, and no letters will be printed without the signature of the writer.

We hope that both faculty members and students will take advantage of this opportunity to encourage activities with appreciation or helpful criticism.

The more subscribers, the keener the Hatchet.

WANT A JOB? SEE THE EDITOR

There are still some places open on the staff for good workers. Four good general reporters are wanted and two good business assistants. Also the editor feels that it is only fair to replace staff members who are incompetent by new ones, because of lack of time or interest, who want to work.

So if you are interested in either line of work send in your names or see the editor.

People Who Work On the Hatchet.

This year will have precedence over new applicants for responsible positions next year.

cularly the duties of George Washington in training men and women to perform these duties were the principal subjects discussed by the speakers, among whom were Senator Warring Harding of Ohio; Miss Mabel Boardman of the Red Cross, Dr. Collier, Mr. W. B. F. MacFarland and Mr. Wm. Bruce King, members of the board of trustees.

Senator Harding referred to several quotations from Washington's farewell address. He spoke of guarding against the jealousies and heart burnings of misrepresentation which tried to render alien to each other those who ought to be bound by fraternal affection, which are largely responsible for the peril of threatened revolution. In conclusion he reminds us that we should do poor honor to Washington's memory if we turned today from a glorifying nationalism to substitute a paralyzing and socializing internationalism.

Mr. MacFarland, the toast master, called attention to the notable part George Washington has taken in helping to win the war. In a particularly strong speech President Collier pointed the duties of this University to the Nation and of its students as citizens. He emphasized the fact that the continued province of the University will be to minister to the peculiar educational needs of the District.
Dr. Collier has given us a new motto for the University.

"Seek the truth without prejudice, Speak the truth without fear."

Miss Boardman discussed inter-national relations and the place the manhood of this country must take in the community of nations. He spoke also of the wounded and blind soldiers in our hospitals.

COUNCIL DANCE

FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Good Music, Good Crowd, Good Time

Between forty and fifty dollars was raised on the Student Council subscription dance given Tuesday, February 18, at the National Academy of Dancing.

All departments of the University were well represented, about a hundred couples being present. Good music helped make the dance a success.

Several of these dances are given each year under the direction of the Student Council. The committee in charge consists of S. Shappin, Law School; George Dazey, Medical School; and Lashia McCaffrey, Teachers College. The money raised is used for student activities.

The next Student Council dance will be given at Dyer's, March 18.
Tickets will cost $1.25. These dances are practically the only University social affairs during the year, and it is hoped that the students will help to make all of them successful.

PLAYERS WILL HOLD

TRY-OUTS WEDNESDAY

Try-outs for parts in the cast of Miller's "Les Femmes Savantes" are to be the feature of the next meeting of the George Washington University players, Wednesday, March 5 at 8 p. m. in the assembly hall of the Arts and Sciences Building.

Dean Henning and Prof. Croissant acted as judges at the try-outs held at the last meeting Wednesday, January 29, but made no selections as they believed that there would be more competition for the parts after examinations. Parts will probably be definitely awarded at the next meeting, as the players are anxious to take up the plans for a musical comedy to be given later in the season.

The officers are: Mr. Cameron Burton, president; Miss Elizabeth Humphries, vice president; Mr. John Paul Earnest, treasurer; Miss Elizabeth Speiser, secretary, and Miss Leinila Lloyd, publicity.

ENGINEERING SOCIETY
MEETING

March 10, 1919
ASSEMBLY HALL
A & S

All Engineering Students Welcome

THE MARINE CORPS

"AMASONS"

The basketball game of Monday, February 24th, held at the Barracks in Washington, was the second of a series of five games to decide the Headquarters girls championship, and so far it looks very much like the A and I have it all over the Q. M. team.

The A. and I are playing a mighty sporty game. Private Priess cannot be matched as a basket slinger. She's there! And all the wiles and wilds of her opponent can't even shake her.
Fitsworth of the A and I, is a guard to be reckoned with and nothing gets by her. She works like a streak of greased lightning.

The first game held a week ago Monday was played with girls' rules, much more mild than boys' rules, and the A. and I walked off with it at the rate of 20 to 14. Monday they played boys' rules and A. and I walked off with it again, 25 to 10.

The first game Sergt. A. Strunk refereed and the Q. M.s thought parciality had been shown, so Sergt. America refereed Monday night and still the A. and I won it.

On the Q. M. team Lee and Clarke are forwards; centers, Mill and Hassen; guards, Sockrider and Griffith.
On the A. and I team forwards, Priess and Donchy; centers, Bennett and Bresnan; guards, Titsworth and Tracy.

The game Monday night started off with a bang. The first surprise was a basket for the A. and I, caged by Bresnan and not three minutes later Priess caged it again with a spectacular toss from a far corner; and right upon the heels of this one of the girls of the Q. M. team did a acrobatic week dance over against the north wall.

The Q. M. team fought like lions and before many minutes of the game had lapsed the crowd had dubbed them the "Amazons."

Chamberlain of the Q. M. did a few funny slides across the floor and Bennett of the A. and I did a lot of fancy posting, while, the first half of the game was ended by Clarke doing a failing faint, which bumped her head against the floor and resulted in casualty No. 1.

Priess sustained a split lip and a shattered (?) knee. Bennett is suffering from stiff muscles; and so far nothing has been heard from the jabbing Amazon Clarke, Captain of the Q. M.s.

So, the second half of the game was played by girls' rules. Boy's rules being ruled out as undesirable to the health and beauty of the fair Marines.

There are three more games to be played off and the captains have promised to play one as an exhibition game at the post gymnasium, Quantico.

Wanted: A drill sergeant to drill men with a religious disposition.

"The cheapest car has the loudest horn."

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT.

The troubles of a commanding officer are of many kinds, as the following incident tends to prove. The colonel had just learned that Billy Sunday would arrive at Quantico on Monday when Corp. Monday appeared before him to request ten days' furlough beginning Sunday. The colonel scratched his head and said: "If Sunday comes on Monday how can Monday go on Sunday?"

BASKET BALL

TROPHIES ON DISPLAY

Beginning Friday, Feb. 28, the beautiful cups, trophies presented to the teams winning first and second places in each of the five basket-ball leagues, will be on display in Spalding's show window in Washington, 613 14th street northwest.

Basket-ball still holds the center of the stage among the sports at Quantico. Five leagues finished their schedules last week and the leaders are now playing a schedule to decide the best championship. The five finishes last week were with the following result:

U League: Rifle Range, first place; 13th Company, second place.

S League: O. T. C., first place; 1st Company, second place.

M League: Enlisted Det. O. T. C., first place; 6th Company, second place.

C League: Overseas Depot, first place; 16th Company, second place.

R League: 17th Company, first place; Barracks Det., second place.

Besides the cups to be presented to the teams winning the first and second places in each league, a cup will be presented to the teams winning first, second and third places in the Post championship.

MASS GAMES WITH

THE MARINES

Much has already been written on the value of mass games.

The war has been responsible for the rapid development of mass play; inasmuch as thousands of Marines participate in the same length of time and space demanded by the specialist type of games.

A program consisting of mass calesthenics, mass games, has been arranged and is being carried out on a daily schedule, by order of Regimental Commander, as follows:

First Battalion, 9.00 a. m. to 10.00

a. m.

Second Battalion, 10.00 a. m. to 11.00

a. m.

Third Battalion, 1.30 p. m. to 2.30 p. m.

First Battalion, Light Field Artillery, 2.30 p. m. to 3.30 p. m.

Overseas Machine Gun Co., 3.30 p.

m. to 4.00 p. m.

1. Mass Calisthenics:

2. Mass medicine-ball workouts.

(a) Stand stride pass.

(b) Over head pass.

(c) Side pass.

(d) Full knee bend and side pass.

3. Mass athletics.

(a) Mass running.

(b) Mass jumping.

(c) Mass run and pull.

(d) Mass carry back.

(e) Mass shuttle relay.

(f) Mass cage ball.

(g) Mass base ball.

(h) Mass boxing.

All mass games are drawn up in file formation. Object to handle greatest number of Marines in the shortest period of time.

Keen interest is developing between the different battalions in regard to the cage ball. Games are being arranged between the different battalions.

When the weather gets warmer water polo will be played. A cage ball will be substituted for the polo ball.

Mass swimming will be carried out on schedule.

A valuable assistant to the Post Athletic Officer, Lieut. Budde, has been found in the person of F. E. Mc-Lean of the N. M. C. A., who is directing mass athletics in the overseas section of the camp.

Heard in a gym where a basketball game was going on:
"We went into the game not to beat 'em, but to kill 'em." They sure did.

THE ROADS

The heavy rains during the past week have caused the dirt roads in this section to be turned into mires.

With practically no miles of road in Dranesville district there is only about $2,500 a year available for their maintenance. We are informed. This being the case there is no wonder the roads are in the condition we now find them. The roads of Virginia have for years been a disgrace to the state, and we understand that the program of Gov. Davis for the next session of the Legislature will call for remedial legislation along this line, with additional taxes to be levied for this purpose.

It is therefore necessary if you wish to have decent roads in this county and State to elect to the legislature men who will pledge themselves to carry out the policies of our former Governor.

Interfraternity Meeting.

The second Interfraternity Association meeting was held at the S. A. E. house last Sunday morning. Earnest, Pugh and Burton were appointed a committee to take charge of the Interfraternity dance, which is to be held some time around the 1st of May. It was also decided to have an interfraternity smoker. Whyte and Heitmuller are the committee in charge. Rushing rules were discussed. The next meeting is to be held at the Kappa Sigma house Sunday morning, Mar. 9.

Delta Tau Delta.

Bro. Franz Edwards and wife paid us a short call last Sunday. He has returned from an assignment at Tex.

as. Bros. George and Elvain Haines are on their way home from France.

Phi Delta Phi.

The war and graduation of several men last year almost forced Phi Delta Phi out of business at G. W. U., for there were only two or three men registered during the first term. However, old members are coming back to school for the second semester, and there is now a bright prospect for a successful term's work. Dick Wood, Harold Hanes, Taylor Stukes, and Walter Livingston, all of whom have been in service, are back with us again. They all sport commissions, too. Clifford Stone graduated at mid-year, and is to be congratulated upon a good record.

Sig Alpha Epsilon.

The George Washington's Birthday party was one peppy party. Our pleasure was greatly increased by the presence of Messrs. Stephens and Whitehead, of Kappa Alpha Fraternity, and Messrs. Burton and Keaner, of Sigma Chi Fraternity.

Jack Payden, second lieutenant in the field artillery, has returned from France and is now studying law at the university.

Bill Barry, of Union University, is living at the house while attending classes at the Arts and Sciences Building.

The chapter announces the pledging of Messrs. Buckingham, Markriter and Paige. These men will hold a smoker March 3, at Wardman Park Inn.

Theta Delta Chi.

Six new George Washington men were entertained at a smoker held at the chapter house Friday, Feb. 21. A very enjoyable time was had by all attending.

Bro. Upton, a former George Washington student, is back from France and is spending a week with us. Bro. Upton is a second lieutenant in the Engineer Corps.

Friday night, Feb. 28, a dance was given at the house. A negro "jazz" orchestra furnished the music and helped restore that old "pep" always evident in all our social functions.

Henry Ravenel, Hatchet editor, '18, is now taking law. He will get his B. A. in June.

MANY NEW MEN, CENT

In her third league game, Saturday night, February 22, George Washington, was defeated by C. U. 29 to 18. C. U. proved too strong for G. W.'s five, though the latter was strengthened by Wilson, a new man.

The line-up was practically the same: Witt, R. F.; Ladd, L. F.; Wilson, C.; Lausche, R. G.; Underwood, L. G.; with White and Hoyte substituting in the latter part of the game. G. W. has yet three league games to play; two with Gallaudet and one with Maryland State.

The next game is in the Y Gym Saturday, March 1, with Gallaudet. Just as soon as the S. A. F. C. had disbanded, Manager C. S. Allen, issued the first call for candidates and it met with a hearty response. Among them were not only all of last year's veterans but a promising array of high school youngsters and indications are that they will repeat their performance of last year of winning the league championship.

Of the league games played so far G. W. U. has won one game and lost one, defeating Maryland State and being defeated by Catholic University. We lost both of our games with Georgetown.

The remaining league games are as follows:

February 22—G. W. U. vs. Catholic U.

March 4—G. W. U. vs. Gallaudet.

March 8—G. W. U. vs. Maryland State.

March 15—G. W. U. vs. Gallaudet.

EARNEST REFUSES TO ACT

New Marshall Election Will Be Called.

John Paul Earnest who was one of the Senior Marshals elected two weeks ago, has refused to act. He is a junior in Columbian College and by mistake was nominated for senior marshal. As none but seniors are eligible for the post, Mr. Earnest has refused the election.

Eugene Underwood and Jacob L. Lenovitz were the other two men elected. Underwood is well known in the University. He was associate editor of the Hatchett last year, a member of the student Student Council, assistant editor of the Cherry Tree, president of the G. W. U. Players, and president of the Inter-fraternity Association. He is a freshman law student and receives his A. B. this year from Columbian College, member of the Pyramid Honor Society. Lenovitz was the cheer lead last year. He is a senior in the engineering college. He was president of the engineering juniors last year and president of the engineering society.

It's a wise man who gets his subscription in early.

ENGINEERS HOLDING
MONTHLY MEETINGS

The first meeting of the Engineering society was held January 13, 1919, for the purpose of organizing the activities of the present year. Members of the Engineering faculty heartily endorsed the principles of the society.

At the second meeting held January 27 three students were scheduled for talks. J. B. Brady gave a talk on "War Production" outlining in brief the methods of the Navy Department in keeping track of various contracts dealing with wireless supplies. He showed several charts, illustrating graphically the time supplies were due and delivered, also percentage of work completed. J. B. Spaulding told about the manufacture of steam turbines. After having worked in the shops of the General Electric Company for the past six months he was able to give some first hand information on the subject. H. H. Dutton gave a very interesting talk on "Scale Testing" telling of the different types of scales and relating some of his experiences in connection with testing and inspection work of the Bureau of Standards in different parts of the country.

Many thanks are due to the Sphinx Society for the refreshments served after the meeting.

The officers of the society are B. F. Crinkshanks, president; H. S. Ward, vice-president; J. B. Brady, E. E. V. P., W. D. Scott, secretary; and J. S. Lenovitz, treasurer.

The next regular meeting is scheduled for Monday, March 19, 1919. All engineering students are urged to join the Engineering Society, since it is the only medium of bringing students together.
